SUMMARY

Full-stack developer, who is skilled in following the logic of others. Allowing me to continue in their style or convert if needed. I have recently received a Certificate in Full Stack Web Development from Minnesota State University. I started my career as a web developer with HTML, Coldfusion, and ASP. I have since taken an amazing opportunity to expand and redevelop my skills. Thanks to the Full Stack Web Development course I have learned many new skills and techniques to improve my web development skills. In addition to the technical skills I have become relatively good at adapting and resolving an assortment of problems.

TECHNICAL SKILLS

Languages: HTML, CSS, JavaScript, JQuery, Bootstrap, Node.js, Express.js, React.js
